

News In Honors

Sponsored by Hershey Foods Honors Program

The Chocolate Times

This new monthly publication from the Hershey Foods Honors Program intends to keep members of the Honors community up-to-date and informed of Honors business.

The newsletter will also highlight the accomplishments of Honors students and serve as a networking device for the community.

Spotlight on Students

- Nathan Matias '05 - Nate recently presented his "Philadelphia Fullerine" www.rubberpaw.com/philadelphia/
- Jeremy Ebersole '05 - Jeremy's Documentary Summertime receives local acclaim.
- Ben Osterhout '05, Jamie Hudzik '05, Rachael Yearwood '08, Dan Mallinson '08, Stefanie Stamatopoulos '08, and Nathan Matias '05 - SIFE recently organized a scouting weekend for 360 local Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts.
- Melissa St. Clair '05 - placed second in the mile at the Ursinus College Frank Colden Invitational on February 5th.
- Stephen Burkholder '05 - Steve is currently working on bio-research at Penn State Hershey Medical Center.
- Jamie Hudzik '05 - Recently visited Rome, Italy as part of a one-week trip.

Send Us Your News

Please send any newsworthy information concerning Honors students to mcknightp@etown.edu.

New Honors Website

As part of the Honors Program's strategic initiatives, Ben Osterhout has redesigned the Honors website to make it more user-friendly. The site includes contract, thesis, and PDF request forms that can be printed from any computer. The website will also be updated with upcoming events and news articles, as well as links to the National Collegiate Honors Council. If you have any suggestions for the website, contact Ben at osterhoutb@etown.edu.

VOLUNTEERS Needed 2005 - 2006 Recruitment

The Honors Program is in need of energetic Honors students to assist in the recruitment of potential new students. We will be contacting new students to promote E-town and the Hershey Foods Honors Program. The volunteers will provide students with information and answer any questions they might have based on personal experience and information provided by the program. Please contact mcknightp@etown.edu (if you are interested in volunteering).

Upcoming Events:

- March-April - 2005-2006 Recruitment Activities
- March 19th - Honors Prospective Dinner and Senior Thesis Mini-Presentations
- April 2nd - Club Trip to New York, February 14th Register Deadline
- May 2nd - Honors End-of-the-Year Celebration Banquet
- NCHC Conference - October 26-30, 2005