

The Chocolate Times

Director's Last Semester

After six years as director, Dr. Conrad Kanagy will be stepping down at the end of this semester. He will remain a member of the Department of Sociology and Anthropology, teaching and pursuing a new research agenda. Dr. Kanagy has made many contributions, including overseeing the development of the Honors curriculum, recruiting six classes of Honors students, and organizing various trips and activities. His direction will be sorely missed, but the program will continue to improve on the foundation he built for us.

Prospective Student Dinner

The Prospective Student Dinner will be held on Saturday March 19th from 5-7:30 pm in the Event Space. This is a great way to make yourself available to students and families of students who are considering joining the Honors Program.

Open Forum

Honors students are invited to participate in an Open Forum on March 17th from 2-3 pm in the BLR. The Program is hosting the forum in order to answer questions and address issues that Honors students may bring up. Dr. Kanagy, Patty and members of the Honors Committee will be present to answer questions. Please contact mcknightp@etown.edu with questions.

Senior Thesis Presentations

The Honors Center is very proud to announce that over the next few months, the Class of 2005 Honors students will be presenting their Senior Theses. On March 19th from 3-5 pm, Patricia Dougherty, J. Nathan Matias, Melissa St. Clair and Kyle Kopko will be presenting their theses in the ZUG Recital Hall.

Send Us Your News

Please send any newsworthy information concerning Honors students to mcknightp@etown.edu for publication in next month's newsletter.

Spotlight on Students

Lenette Williams '05 - is currently interning at Mckonly & Asbury, a Camp Hill accounting firm.

Carey Tamoburrino '05 - will attend the University of Penn School of Veterinary Medicine this fall.

Senior Education majors Laura Cluggish, Patti Dougherty, Tama George, Kim Harrison, Leah Marguilies, Amy Mowrey and Timothy Matlack have been working on student teaching in various fields in area schools.

Kyle C. Kopko '05 - has been accepted to Ohio State Law School.

Sara Otero '06 and Christina Hurst '07 - performed at the College's Student Solo concert on February 21st.

Nicole Murphy '08, Erin Lichti '06, Melissa St. Clair '05, Kim Whalen '06, and Julie Torchia '07 - helped the Women's Track team place 4th at the Mac Championships last month.

Volunteers needed for Recruitment Calls

We need volunteers! We'll be recruiting next year's class of Honors students the week of March 14th, and we need current students to help by making phone calls. You will be provided with information for each call and just have to be willing to share your experiences with prospective students and their families. Please call extension 3758 or e-mail mcknightp@etown.edu if you can help. We can't do it without you!

Upcoming Events:

- March 14th - Recruitment of Class of 2009
- March 17th - Honors Open Forum 2-3 pm in the BLR.
- March 19th - Honors Prospective dinner and thesis mini-presentations
- April 2nd - Honors Council Trip to NYC
- May 2nd - End of the Year Honors Celebration
- October 26-30, 2005 - NCHC Conference in St. Louis