Assistant Professor of Psychology

The Department of Psychology at Elizabethtown College is seeking applicants at the Assistant Professor level for a tenure-track position in Cognitive/Experimental Psychology beginning in Fall 2010. A Ph.D. is preferred but ABD is acceptable for applicants who will complete their doctorate within one year. Teaching responsibilities include general psychology, introduction to neuroscience and an advanced research course in memory, thinking, motivation or learning. Teaching load is usually three sections per semester. Candidates are expected to supervise undergraduate research.

Located in southeastern Pennsylvania, Elizabethtown College offers its 1,900 students more than 47 academic programs in the liberal arts, sciences and professional studies. Driven by its motto to “Educate for Service,” Elizabethtown centers learning in strong relationships, links classroom instruction with experiential learning, emphasizes international and cross-cultural perspectives and nurtures the capacity for lives of purpose and leadership as global citizens. For more information, consult www.etown.edu.

To apply, candidates should send a letter of interest, the College’s faculty information form (found at www.etown.edu/humanresources - Job Opportunities), curriculum vitae, description of research interests, reprints of publications, evidence of teaching effectiveness, and three letters of recommendation to hr@etown.edu or:
