Early Childhood Education Assistant or Associate Professor of Education

Elizabethtown College invites applications for a tenure-track appointment as an Assistant or Associate Professor of Early Childhood Education beginning in fall 2010.

A Ph.D. or an Ed.D. in Early Childhood Education or a closely related area is expected, but ABDs with an imminent defense date will also be considered. Preference will be given to candidates who have teaching experience in higher education as well as teaching certification and experience in early childhood education. Additional specialization (including the ability to teach courses) in early intervention, special education, ELL, educational psychology, or an academic content area is also highly desired.

Commencing with the 2009-2010 academic year, the Department of Education plans to offer teaching certifications in Early Childhood Education (pre-k to grade 4), Elementary/ Middle Education (grades 4-8), secondary education (grades 7-12), and special education.

Located in southeastern Pennsylvania, Elizabethtown College offers its 2,000 students more than 47 academic programs in the liberal arts, sciences and professional studies. Driven by its motto to "Educate for Service," Elizabethtown centers learning in strong relationships, links classroom instruction with experiential learning, emphasizes international and cross-cultural perspectives and nurtures the capacity for lives of purpose and leadership as global citizens. For more information, consult www.etown.edu.

To apply, forward a cover letter, curriculum vitae, and statement of undergraduate teaching philosophy. Also, arrange to have three letters of reference from professional colleagues and both undergraduate and graduate transcripts sent to:
