

FIRST YEAR STUDENT ADVISING SHEET

MAJOR: Accounting

COURSES REQUIRED BY MAJOR

First Year

- BA101 Global Issues in Business and Society (either semester)
- AC101 Introduction to Accounting (either semester)
- EC101 Principles of Macroeconomics (either semester) or
EC102 Principles of Microeconomics (either semester)
- BA105 Managerial Communication and Career Prep I (1 cr – spring semester)
- BA110 Business Orientation (1 cr – spring semester)
- BA111 First Year Business Experience (0 cr – spring semester)

NOTES:

1. Students may take EC101 and EC102 in any sequence.
2. AC 205 and AC206 should be taken in sequence normally beginning the fall of sophomore year.
3. MA251 should be taken in the sophomore year. Students should take any necessary prerequisites in the first year depending on their math placement.
4. Many states now require students to have 150 credits to obtain their CPA license. Students should plan to take extra credits in later years/summer or complete a summer internship for credit if they want to try to meet this requirement in 4 years.
5. For a suggested 4-Year Plan for the AC major, visit
<http://www.etown.edu/depts/business/areas-study/accounting.aspx>
6. Details about all programs in the Department of Business are available at <http://www.etown.edu/depts/business/>

Students with questions about Accounting as a major should contact Professor Terrie Riportella, Hoover Center, Room 225, ext. 3753, email: riportellat@etown.edu