

October 2, 2013:
Teaching Writing Effectively

Many faculty members express misgivings about having to work with students on improving their writing skills, saying that writing instruction is outside their field of expertise (except for those in English). This session aims to help faculty teach writing effectively and efficiently in non-composition courses. It will also introduce faculty to the peer writing consultant services provided by the Writing Wing of the Center for Student Success.

Dr. Rebecca Olson

Lecturer in English and Director of First-Year Writing Program

Mr. Richard Fellingner

Faculty Fellow in Writing Center
