

Elizabethtown College

Career Opportunity

Adjunct – Public Policy Department of Politics, Philosophy and Legal Studies

The Elizabethtown College Department of Politics, Philosophy and Legal Studies invites applications for an adjunct instructor in public policy.

The instructor will teach a master's-level course in public policy methods, focusing on research design and data analysis, in the fall 2016 semester. Applicants should be knowledgeable in conducting applied research for public organizations. Minimum requirements are a Master's degree in public administration, public policy or related field with experience writing policy briefs and research reports using quantitative analysis and statistical software.

Located in southeastern Pennsylvania, Elizabethtown College offers its 1,800 students more than 53 academic programs in the liberal arts, sciences and professional studies. Driven by its commitment to "Educate for Service," Elizabethtown centers learning in strong relationships, links classroom instruction with experiential learning, emphasizes international and cross-cultural perspectives and nurtures the capacity for lives of purpose and leadership as global citizens. For more information, consult <http://www.etown.edu>.

Interested candidates should submit a cover letter, c.v. and contact information for three references to:

hr@etown.edu (preferred)

-OR-

Elizabethtown College
Attn: Human Resources
One Alpha Drive
Elizabethtown, PA 17022

For more information visit: www.etown.edu/jobs

Review of applications will begin June 15, and continue until the position is filled.

As an equal opportunity employer, Elizabethtown College is seeking candidates who will enhance the diversity of its faculty, staff, and administration.