A Description...

The Susquehanna Valley Ministry Center offers Church of the Brethren ministry training opportunities at both the graduate and academy levels. This handbook focuses on information for ACTS instructors.

ACTS courses are usually offered simultaneously at local churches or Brethren institutions in the partnering districts. A certificate will be granted by the Brethren Academy for Ministerial Leadership to non-degree students who complete all the requirements of the ACTS program.

The program is open to licensed ministers seeking to fulfill requirements for ordination, to laypersons seeking leadership training, and to ordained ministers pursuing continuing education.

To complete the program, students need to take 12 or more academic courses and the following non-academic requirements: supervised ministry and ministry formation programs supplement the learning experience and are available through the district. In addition, students participate in Annual Conference, District Conference, and an ecumenical, interfaith, or intercultural experience.

OVERVIEW

Academy Certified Training System (ACTS)

Susquehanna Valley Ministry Center's ACTS program is one avenue by which a licensed minister can fulfill the ordination requirements set forth in the 2014 Ministerial Leadership paper:

Ordained Ministers shall...

(2.) Complete one of the following approved educational programs:

- The Master of Divinity (MDiv) degree from Bethany Theological Seminary or another institution accredited by the Association of Theological Schools.
- The Training in Ministry (TRIM) program through the Brethren Academy for Ministerial Leadership provides an alternative for those who find it impossible or impractical to complete a Master of Divinity degree. It also offers appropriate ministry training to supplement the education of those who may hold degrees in higher education other than those named here.
- The Academy Certified Training Systems (ACTS) programs, district or regional programs certified by the Brethren Academy for Ministerial Leadership, provide still another alternative training track.¹

This Academy Certified Training System (ACTS) was developed in collaboration with the District Executives of Atlantic Northeast, Mid-Atlantic, Southern PA, Middle PA and Western PA districts, and approved by the Governing Board of the Susquehanna Valley Ministry Center and the Brethren Academy for Ministerial Leadership.

Susquehanna Valley Ministry Center believes strongly that our students in ministry training need to develop a spiritual rootedness as they prepare to be leaders in the church. Recognizing and embracing the fact that God is our foundation, we seek to encourage the students to deepen their spirituality using a variety of spiritual disciplines throughout their educational process. Students will be provided the opportunity for spiritual formation through groups, class work, and individual instruction.

Ministry training in ACTS occurs through structured courses, ministry formation experience offered in each district, and supervised ministry experience offered in each district.

- Courses are offered in regionally-based settings and online. Twelve courses are required.
- Ministry formation occurs in a setting where students share with one another about the unique experiences, questions, uncertainties, successes, and challenges. Together, the students learn about their own abilities, strengths, and weaknesses as they place themselves in the various ministry situations shared with the group.
- The supervised ministry experience occurs when the student is paired with an experienced minister. Together, they explore and experience the daily needs and challenges of doing ministry. This occurs approximately midway through the educational program.
- ACTS will be completed in three or four years depending on the individual district's schedule of courses.

The Susquehanna Valley Ministry Center staff, the SVMC Governing Board, and the District Executives will evaluate the program on a regular basis to monitor the educational and administrative progress.

SPIRITUAL PLAN

(Excerpt from “ACTS Plan”)

The Academy Certified Training System (ACTS) of the Susquehanna Valley Ministry Center (SVMC) believes strongly that our students in ministry training need to develop a spiritual rootedness as they prepare to be leaders in the church. Recognizing and embracing the fact that God is our foundation, we seek to encourage students to deepen their spirituality using a variety of spiritual disciplines throughout their educational process. Students will be provided the opportunity for spiritual formation through groups, class work, and individual instruction.

Biblical Foundation for Spiritual Discernment²

In Christ, the believer is a new creation. (2 Cor. 5:17-18)

New life for the believer is defined as a change from old behaviors. (1 Tim. 3:2-13; Tit. 1:5-8; 2:2-8; Gal. 5:19-24)

The believer is being changed into the likeness of Christ. (2 Cor. 3:18)

The believer grows toward maturity. (Eph. 4:13)

Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your minds, so that you may discern what is the will of God. (Rom. 12:1-2)

Let each of you lead the life...to which God called you. (1 Cor. 7:17)

Followers of Christ live with integrity. (Matt. 5:33-37)

‘Whatever you did for one of the least of these, you did for me.’ (Matt. 25:40)

Christians believe that all of life is sacred. (Matt. 5:21-24)

Believers are committed to high values (Matt. 6:19-24)

Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly and do all in the name of the Lord Jesus. (Col. 3:16-17)

Followers of Christ abstain from those things that harm and destroy the body. (1 Cor. 6:19-20)

Sisters and brothers in Christ strive for healing and reconciliation. (Matt 5:25-26, 43-48; 6:12, 14-15; 18:15-17; Rom. 12:14-21)

Sisters and brothers in Christ live in a caring community where each part of the body is valued. (1 Cor. 12; Eph. 4)

² Scripture list from “Readiness for Ministry” paper in Ministerial Leadership Notebook, OM 230.1-2. This list has been reordered, and some additional scripture listed, to loosely represent the progression of new life, growth, commitment, community, and sending.

We are no longer strangers, but we are members of the household of God. (Eph. 2:11-22)

Jesus said to them..."As the Father has sent me, so I send you." (John 20:21)

The scripture continues to call us to the understanding that we are created new in Jesus Christ and are being changed into the likeness of Christ. Our journey is one of on-going growth calling us to high values and integrity. We are called to live the example of Jesus Christ by being Christ's hands, feet, and body on earth.

We are called to live out the teaching of Jesus Christ and embrace the values of our denomination as we minister with one another as students in ministry training, teachers equipping students, administrators of ACTS, and with those we encounter daily.

Spiritual Formation

As students preparing for ministry and as seasoned ministers, our spiritual formation is ongoing. Richard Foster, in Spiritual Classics, makes some helpful statements about spiritual formation:

Spiritual formation involves a fundamental choice. Choosing to live for Jesus Christ may mean adopting a certain style of life, or perhaps more properly, a rule of life. We take on a series of spiritual practices that will open us to God's work in our lives. At the same time we need to remember that spiritual transformation is a work of grace. It is what God does in us...One more thing to remember: spiritual formation is ongoing. We need not be impatient; we need take no measurements.³

Spiritual formation is not as measurable as some other ministry skills may be. ACTS aspires to provide students with opportunities and examples; we trust in the transformative power and grace of God to work in the lives of students.

Incorporating Spiritual Disciplines into ACTS

We seek God's guidance in our planning and our relationship to the students. Opportunities for spiritual disciplines are incorporated into ACTS in the formation of the students, the modeling of the teachers, and the administration of the program.

Students

Each student is encouraged to be open to God through him/herself, congregation, counselor/mentor, District Executive, and District Ministry Commission. We should be open to discerning calls whether they come as a "bright light" or a "still small voice." The support of the student's congregation, counselor/mentor, and district can be helpful in the discernment of the call and guidance. The importance of the relationship among the student, counselor/mentor, and congregation should not be undervalued. Challenge, support, discernment, and understanding can be offered through these important relationships. The mentor will support the student, as well as challenge him or her to reach the next level of growth. Each district follows the counselor/mentor guidelines set forth by its ministry commission.

³Foster, Richard and Emilie Griffin, Spiritual Classics (San Francisco: Harper, 2000), xiii-xiv.

Students are encouraged to journal throughout the entire educational process. In doing so, students may document personal interaction and reflection on their own personal theological and faith development as it relates to specific courses, assignments, and ministry incidents. This exercise allows students to record experiences and reflection and to monitor their personal growth throughout the training journey. Students may use this journal regularly with their supervisor for discussion and reflection. In addition, the journal will provide a valuable collection of responses that will help students evaluate their entire educational and ministry experience.

Students are encouraged to be cognizant of spiritual disciplines and have a devotional style and plan which should include prayer, Bible study, and meditation. The ACTS program recognizes that there is not a “one size fits all” devotional plan; rather, students should seek what contributes to their spiritual formation as they develop and deepen a spiritual rootedness. Exploration of the inner disciplines of study, meditation, prayer and fasting; outward disciplines of simplicity, solitude, submission, and service; and corporate disciplines of confession, worship, guidance, and celebration is encouraged.⁴

INSTRUCTORS

Instructors are chosen for the ACTS courses by the Executive Director of SVMC in consultation with the partnering district executives. Instructor criteria include:

1. Identify with the scriptural qualifications for ministerial leadership as noted in the Ministerial Leadership document of the Church of the Brethren
2. Exhibit skills and expertise in course topic
3. M.Div. preferred, although an undergraduate degree, completion of the TRIM program and experience in course topic is acceptable
4. Exhibit teaching skills
5. Work within the SVMC timeline of syllabus submission and course completion

Instructor Compensation

Compensation for teaching ACTS courses is: $600 honorarium, 1.5 CEU certificate, and reimbursement for mileage, copying and postage. The honorarium is $750 for classes with 11 or more students. Instructors will not be paid until all evaluations of students are completed and given to the SVMC staff. Unfortunately, SVMC cannot reimburse textbook purchase.

Timeline

The SVMC Program Coordinator and Donna Rhodes will work in close communication with instructors to get information to the students both prior to and at the close of the classes.

The following is a timeline for communication:

- Instructor will send syllabus and letter of greeting for the students to the SVMC office 2 months prior to the first class.
- Program Coordinator (PC) will send the letters and syllabus to the registered students. Students are expected to acquire the textbooks and begin on pre-meeting assignment/reading.
- PC will contact the host church/office two weeks prior to the first class and verify class times and arrangements.
- PC will send students addresses and roster to instructor at beginning of class; near end of class she will send evaluation forms and letter of instruction.
- One month after last class, instructor will send completed evaluations of students and projects to PC.
- PC will complete necessary paper work for the students' records; will send evaluation and projects to individual students.
- PC will send instructor's honorarium, compilation of students' evaluations and CEU certificate to instructor.

COURSE PLANNING

Expectations of Student Work

Established by the Ministry Advisory Council as a standard for all ministry training programs in the Church of the Brethren⁵

- Fifteen contact hours
- Total class time, reading, and project work should total 50-65 hours
- Approximately 400 pages of reading material; each course will have reading which includes a required text(s) plus assigned supplemental reading to adequately cover the subject area.
- One or more major assignments/projects will be required. Assignments could be a comparative book review, research paper, interviews, pastoral conversations, sermons, or teaching outlines. Assignments integrating reading or research with the student's ministry are especially desirable. Be sure to familiarize yourself with the policy on citation style and plagiarism in Appendix 3.
- Use measurable ways of evaluating work done: written projects, tests, congregational feedback instruments, taped sermons, in addition to classroom discussions and conversations between student and supervisor.

Absences

With courses taught as intensives, students are expected to attend every class if at all possible. We recognize, however, that some absences are unavoidable. One absence—or not more than 20% of class time—due to illness, death in the family, or dangerous driving conditions, may be excused at the instructor's discretion. Please communicate with the SVMC Program Coordinator or Executive Director if students request more than one absence, or absence on a different basis. Two or more absences generally lead to an automatic "no-credit," but exceptions can be made by petition to the Executive Director.

Students that miss class must turn in additional written work (assigned by the instructor) to substitute for the missed class. This could be an exercise that asks the student to reflect on issues covered by class discussion, a summary of assigned readings, or some combination thereof.

ACTS Courses taken for Continuing Education Units (CEUs)

The following is the policy for ACTS courses counting as Continuing Education:

An ACTS course can count for 1.5 CEU. We are able to offer 0.1 CEU for every contact hour. Therefore, because certificate classes have 15 contact hours, each course can count for 1.5 CEU. To attain this CEU, the student should attend class, participate in discussions, and do the reading. The student is not expected to do the extra papers or projects, although they may do so if they choose.

The students will pay the audit fee as cost for the course and an additional $10 CEU documentation fee.

It also means that the work we submit and represent as our own is really work we ourselves have done. The Church of the Brethren 2008 Annual Conference Ethics in Ministry Paper (2008) Part III Code of Ethics for Ministerial Leaders states:

‘I will give credit for all sources quoted or extensively paraphrased in sermons and prepared papers. I will honor all copyrights’ (p. 8, Letter M).

Plagiarism is using the work of other people without giving them credit, whether in written assignments, oral reports and sermons. The consequences for plagiarism will vary according to the extent of the offense. These may range from rewriting the assignment, non-crediting the assignment, or non-crediting the course.”

b. reading assignment #1 - by the first class, purchase and begin reading.

Who Needs Theology? An Invitation to the Study of God, by Stanley J. Genz and Roger E. Olson.

c. reflection assignment #1– Be prepared to share your theology at our first class; i.e. How did you come to know God? Who is God? What is faith? Where does Jesus Christ fit into the picture? What is theology? What is it to you? How important is it that you are able to articulate all this?

2. OUR SECOND CLASS - (January 16, 2014)

EARLY CHRISTIAN THEOLOGY BASED ON VARIOUS BIBLE PASSAGES

In our second class, we'll look at various biblical texts which reveal what the early church believed. We'll be looking at various passages in the Synoptic Gospels, the Gospel of John, and some of Paul's writings to begin sketching the critical components of early Christian theology.

a. writing assignment #1 – to be handed in at class January 16, 2014

Based on the reading so far, and the discussion we had in our first class, write a 1-3 page essay (double-spaced, Times New Roman font, size 12) which outlines and describes your theology, i.e., What do you believe about God, Jesus Christ, the Church, sin, salvation, your purpose in life, etc.? Try to be specific.

NOTE! I realize what I'm asking is far beyond the scope of a three-page essay, but there is value in the deliberate effort of trying to define in writing the theological specifics of what you believe. I'm looking for a broad overview of your theology, rather than an in-depth discussion of the details.

b. reading assignment #2 - finish reading Who Needs Theology? An Invitation to the Study of God, by Stanley J. Genz and Roger E. Olson, and begin reading The Believers' Church, by Donald F. Durnbaugh. *NOTE! Don't be turned off by the scholarly nature of this book. It still ranks as the leading description of much our theological roots as Brethren.**

INTRODUCTION TO THEOLOGY – SYLLABUS (continued)

3. OUR THIRD CLASS – (January 30, 2014)

TWO CLASSICAL THEOLOGICAL ISSUES: TRINITY & INCARNATION

In our third class, we're going to wrestle as the church did with articulating what we believe about the divine nature of God as expressed by the term "trinity." Once our brains are fried on this one, we'll take up the equally engaging issue of the incarnation of Jesus Christ, and why the specifics of what is said about this was so important to the church.

a. reading assignment #3 – finish reading The Believers' Church, by Donald F. Durnbaugh.

b. writing assignment #2 – to be handed in at class January 30, 2014

Choose a New Testament passage; identify the theological issue (or issues) present in that text; and write a 1-3 page essay (double-spaced, Times New Roman font, size 12) discussing the issues you identified.

NOTE: This assignment sounds much more difficult than it really is. Obviously, the New Testament is loaded with theological concepts like judgment, grace, salvation, ecclesiology (the church), eschatology (end times), just to name a few. Pick one and write about what the biblical text says, as well as its implications for you, your life, the church, etc.

4. OUR FOURTH CLASS – (February 13, 2014)

NEW THEOLOGIES: LUTHER & CALVIN

It just wouldn't be a theology class if we didn't highlight the changes in theology brought about by these two titans of the Reformation, Luther and Calvin. We'll discuss the 3 "solas" – sola fide meaning "faith alone," sola gratia meaning "grace alone," and sola scriptura meaning "scripture alone."

a. reading assignment #3 – none

b. NO SPECIFIC WRITING ASSIGNMENT DUE THIS CLASS

5. OUR FIFTH (LAST) CLASS – (February 27, 2014)

WHAT WE THINK AS BRETHERN: THE THEOLOGY OF ANABAPTISM, PIETISM & THE RADICAL REFORMATION

We'll do our best in this last class to discuss in 3 hours what scholars have written volumes about! Our goal in this last session is to identify the theological trademarks which identify us as Brethren-part of the Believers' Church and products of the Pietist and Anabaptist movements.

a. reading assignment – none for this class

b. writing assignment #3 – to be handed in at class February 27, 2014

Choose a specific aspect of Brethren Theology (e.g. believers' baptism, pacifism, the simple life, etc.) and write a 3-5 page essay (double-spaced, Times New Roman font, size 12) discussing theologically the issue you identified, i.e. analyze it, defend it, criticize it, relate it to other specific theological issues we've discussed.

STUDENT EVALUATION

The Executive Director will read all instructor and class evaluations at the end of each course. Where there are problems in the class, instructors will report these to the Executive Director upon which remedial action will be taken.

Instructors will evaluate students' performance in their class. Instructors will clearly define expectations and projects as the course begins. Each course should include the basic objectives included in this Learning Plan. These basic objectives help to meet the Readiness for Ministry criteria. Students will keep the instructor apprised of the theme of their project/paper/plan that will be a major determinant in measuring performance.

ACTS classes are graded as credit or no credit.

The instructor will use the following questions as a guide for evaluation of student participation and projects:

Evaluate how the student participated in class:

- How was the student's class attendance?

Because each class represents 20-33% of total contact time, students are expected to attend all classes. The instructor may excuse one absence for unavoidable circumstances. Credit can be given to a student with two absences only on appeal to the Executive Director.

When a student does miss a class, he or she should turn in some form of written work that helps them to digest the material. This could be written reflection on or summary of the readings, answering specific questions posed by the instructors, or another assignment of the instructor's choosing. Instructors are not required to give feedback or closely evaluate work turned in for missed class time.

- Did the student participate thoughtfully and constructively in class discussions?
- Did the student complete assignments on time and in a quality manner?

Evaluate the completed projects:

- Were the projects completed on time?
- Does the student provide quality work with requirements met?
- Does the student demonstrate an understanding of the material and its application in ministry?
- In your opinion, has the student demonstrated progress on the Readiness for Ministry criteria listed for your course?
- How does the student demonstrate a quality understanding of the writing process? (e.g. spelling, grammar, punctuation, footnoting, bibliography.)

A rubric to guide the instructors in grading is included in Appendix 2.

Evaluation of Student in Brethren Bible Institute Course

Susquehanna Valley Ministry Center recognizes some courses through Brethren Bible Institute as fulfilling ACTS requirements. According to SVMC Governing Board action on April 18, 2007, SVMC will allow up to six courses from BBI to qualify as ACTS courses. All courses and instructors must fall within ACTS Guidelines.

Students requesting ACTS credit through BBI will meet the requirement of 15 contact hours by a combination of class time and additional hours with the instructor. Some of the additional hours will occur within the week of BBI meetings. If necessary, the instructor and student will meet outside of BBI. In addition, the student must successfully complete assigned reading and projects.

Appendix 3

Brethren Academy and SVMC Policy on Citation Style and Plagiarism

Integrity is central to life in community. In the Christian academic community, integrity means giving proper credit to people for the ideas and information we receive from them. It also means that the work we submit and represent as our own is really work we ourselves have done. The Church of the Brethren 2008 Annual Conference Ethics in Ministry Paper (2008) Part III Code of Ethics for Ministerial Leaders states:

“I will give credit for all sources quoted or extensively paraphrased in sermons and prepared papers. I will honor all copyrights” (p. 8, Letter M).

Plagiarism is using the work of other people without giving them credit, whether in written assignments, oral reports and sermons. A glaring example of plagiarism would be submitting an entire essay or preaching a sermon written by someone else and claiming it was your own. It is also plagiarism to use, without giving credit, someone else’s ideas or phrases. This definition applies to words and images, to manuscripts, and to ideas gleaned from spoken communication.

The consequences for plagiarism will vary according to the extent of the offense. These may range from rewriting the assignment, non-crediting the assignment, or non-crediting the course. The instructor will report any instance of plagiarism to the student and to those supervising the instructional programs. Students who wish to challenge the charge of plagiarism could contact their district executive and/or the Brethren Academy for Ministerial Leadership.

Guidelines for Writing Research Papers

The following guidelines were written by Marilyn Lerch in consultation with Dr. Daniel Ulrich, a Bethany Theological Seminary professor, and Craig Gandy, a Brethren Academy instructor. They are excerpted from the Training in Ministry (TRIM) Notebook, but apply equally well to ACTS students and papers.

For many entering students, it has been quite a while since they have written a research paper. The guidelines here will provide some structure around that experience. Please know that instructors of particular courses may have their own expectations, so see the following as general suggestions.

Normally a research paper should be typed in a 12 point font, double-spaced, and with standard (1 inch) margins. All quotations are to be footnoted, and quotes longer than a couple of lines need to be placed in a block quote, which should be indented and single-spaced. Since this is an academic paper, the instructor would like to see a bibliography at the end of the paper. Each footnote and entry of the bibliography should include the author’s name, title of the reference (italicized), publisher, and year. Footnotes should also include a page number. If an online website is referenced, it is necessary cite the specific web address and the date the information was downloaded.

Footnote Citation Example:

Carl Desportes Bowman, Portrait of a People: The COB at 300, Brethren Press, 2008, p.83.

Ministerial ethics require crediting all sources. Plagiarism is looked upon with great concern in a ministry training program. Should there be evidence found of plagiarism, the Executive Director will need to have a conversation with the student's district regarding this matter.

Focusing your proposed topic:

Many topics initially proposed by students require some focusing. Here are some suggestions for focusing a topic. After a broad topic has been selected, do some introductory reading. For example, if the course textbooks address the topic, look at their ideas, arguments, and bibliographies. In addition, check some reference works such as Bible dictionaries and commentaries. Get a feel for the issues that scholars are debating in relation to the topic, and note suggestions for further reading. Then choose a more specific issue or question that the introductory exploration leads to and could be studied in depth. Remember that depth is usually more valuable than breadth in a research project. Above all, a research paper should clearly indicate what you have learned as a result of your research.

Academic research papers should have an introduction, a body, and a conclusion.

The introduction should include one sentence that states clearly what the focus of the paper will be. This is called a thesis statement.

Get right to the point in the introduction. No need to beat around the bush. One useful technique (although not the only technique) is to make the first sentence a statement of the thesis.

Thesis Statement Example: In John 13:13-15, Jesus commands his disciples to wash one another's feet. In this paper, I will demonstrate the effect of gender with regard to one's perspective on foot washing, gathering information from historical, biblical and theological sources. (This is not the only way a thesis statement can be structured, but this example provides some guidance.)

The body of the paper makes the case that the student has come to through research and thought; that is, the body presents the reasons for thinking the thesis is true, and/or examine the evidence of the problem or question that has been explored. It is also in the body of the paper where there is a clear demonstration that the research that has been done backs up the position taken with quoted material. Be sure to show that you have learned something!

In the conclusion, draw together the various strands of the position taken, showing how they connect to the thesis and how they lead to the particular Biblical/theological viewpoint which has been assumed as a result of this study.

Even after a proposal is approved, one can adjust a topic in light of further research. Just keep the instructor informed of any major changes. Don't hesitate to consult with an instructor if you have questions. Such questions will be received with much more grace if they come in a timely manner rather than at 5:30 the day before the research paper is due. ☺
