

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) requires that all international applicants seeking an F-1 student visa certify that they have sufficient financial support to complete their program of study. Students must submit documentation that guarantees that they have sufficient funds for their first year of study minus scholarships, at minimum. An expense breakdown is available on our Tuition and Fees page. International students are eligible for merit scholarships. Please fill out the following table below and email all required documents, corresponding to each of the funding sources you indicate on this form, to international@etown.edu. You may enter any combination of the sources below to cover the cost of study.

Approved Sources of Funding (must have an official bank signature and/or bank seal of approval):

- Checking Account
- Savings Account
- Money Market Account
- Certificates of/Fixed Term Deposits
- Current Account
- Loans

Unapproved Sources of Funding (funds that are not immediately available to withdraw for education):

- Pension/Retirement Funds
- Salary checks/pay stubs
- Property (jewelry, cars, etc.)
- Stocks, bonds, mutual funds
- Real Estate
- Job offer letters
