I. INTRODUCTION

Elizabethtown College is a comprehensive college offering 53 over 50 majors and 90+ minors or concentrations. Through the core program, all students receive a strong liberal arts foundation regardless of their choice of major. The college is accredited by the Middle States Association and the American Council of Education. The college has been ranked as one of the best regional colleges in the country by U.S. News & World Report. Elizabethtown College is a residential college where 85 percent of the students live in campus residents. The college enrolls approximately 1900 students from the United States and 40 foreign countries.

The social work program at Elizabethtown College was established in 1972 and received accreditation from the Council on Social Work Education in 1977. The program has been accredited continuously since 1977. We currently have 75 majors and 4 full time professors. Elizabethtown College awards a Bachelor's of Social Work. An important aspect of the overall curriculum is the experiential learning component. It begins with Community Based Learning in the first year and culminates with 600 hours of field instruction in the senior year.

Concept of Generalist Social Worker

Students graduating from our program are prepared for entry-level generalist social work practice. They must draw upon their liberal arts preparatory knowledge as the foundation for developing critical thinking skills for beginning social work practice. Particular attention is given to the needs and empowerment of all people who are vulnerable, oppressed, or living in poverty. A generalist social worker is firmly committed to social work values and ethics as described in the NASW Code of Ethics.

The following definition is communicated to the students:

Generalist practice is grounded in the liberal arts and the person-in-environment framework. To promote human and social well-being, generalist practitioners use a range of prevention and intervention methods in their practice with diverse individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities based on scientific inquiry and best practices. The generalist practitioner identifies with the social work profession and applies ethical principles and critical thinking in practice at the micro, mezzo, and macro levels. Generalist practitioners engage diversity in their practice and advocate for human rights and social and economic justice. They recognize, support, and build on the strengths and resiliency of all human beings. They engage in research-informed practice and are proactive in responding to the impact of context on professional practice.

II. AN OVERVIEW

A. The Mission of Elizabethtown College

Molded by a commitment to educate for service, Elizabethtown College is a community of learners dedicated to educating students intellectually, socially, aesthetically and ethically for lives of service and leadership as citizens of the world. As a comprehensive institution, the College offers academic programs in the liberal arts, sciences and professional studies. Combining classroom instruction with experiential learning, these programs advance independent thought, personal integrity and social responsibility as the foundations for a life of learning. Founded by members of the Church of the Brethren, the College believes that learning is most noble when used to benefit others and affirms the values of peace, non-violence, human dignity and social justice.

B. Mission and Goals of the Social Work Program

Building upon the Elizabethtown College motto, "Educate for Service," the Social Work Department uses relationship-centered learning to provide a strong generalist social work education based upon a liberal arts foundation integrated with extensive field experience, to achieve the established competencies of social work.

Goal One: To prepare dedicated social workers who have integrated professional knowledge, values, and skills with an understanding of the intersection of cultural identities to promote social change and work for human rights worldwide.

Goal Two: To develop ethical social workers who can engage with multi-level systems to address structural inequalities and life challenges through an integration of the liberal arts and professional knowledge.

Student Learning Outcomes for Social Work

Competency #8: Intervene with Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities

Competency #9: Evaluate Practice with Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities

III. EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

A. Liberal Arts Base

Elizabethtown College emphasizes its liberal arts foundation: this provides a strong base for the professional social work program, through offering a breadth of knowledge for our students and exposure to a variety of experiences that may affect their traditional and conservative backgrounds. A liberal arts foundation supplies the foundation for this lifelong process of growth. As this occurs, the student and faculty alike, increase in ability to understand a wide variety of others, value their differences and to skillfully and sensitively work with them to solve problems, meet needs and acquire justice. This new understanding gives them the capacity to deal with a variety of cultural contexts and individual differences. The liberal arts core program assists the student in developing a variety of interests so that they may develop to their fullest potential.

Elizabethtown College's approach to providing this foundation is the Core Program. Through Elizabeth's core program of traditional and innovative liberal arts, students develop skills for critical analysis, effective communication, and habits of mind that ensure adaptability in the ever-changing global job market.

The core program supports the academic goals expressed in the mission statement of Elizabethtown College. As stated in the college catalog, the core program has four major purposes:

- To provide a sense of mission and purpose to general education;
- To provide a foundation for successful study in liberal arts and profession;
- To integrate knowledge across the disciplines by engaging students in the study of the natural world and the human experience; and
- To develop habits of the mind that foster continued intellectual growth.

The Core Program offers two basic categories of courses. Students engage in a common core educational experience in the First-Year Seminar. In addition to this common experience, students enroll in courses in eight Areas of Understanding. A total of eleven courses (44 credits) are required to complete the Elizabethtown Core. These eight Areas of Understanding include:

- Power of Language (2) 4 credit classes (1 of these must be a modern language course)
- Mathematics (1) 4 credit class - Social Work requires MA251 Probability & Statistics
- Creative Expression (1) 4 credit class
- Western Cultural Heritage (1) 4 credit class
- Non-Western Cultural Heritage (1) 4 credit class
- Natural and Physical Sciences (2) 4 credit classes – Social Work requires 100-level Biology class
- Social Science (1) 4 credit course – Social Work requires SO101 Discovering Society
- Humanities (1) 4 credit course

B. Social Work Professional Curriculum

The Social Work curriculum seeks to be a full integrative program which encompasses the objectives of our program, our expected educational outcomes, and the experiential component. The Department of Social Work offers students a Bachelor of Arts degree upon successful completion of all departmental and college requirements. Students must earn a minimum of 125 credits. There is no social work course credit given for life experience or previous work experience.

Social Work majors typically complete a majority of the required core classes by the beginning of the junior year. This assures an understanding of and appreciation for the liberal arts content. The values, knowledge, and ideals of a liberal arts education form the foundation for the Social Work curriculum. It is at this point that the upper-level social work sequencing intensifies, culminating in field instruction and the completion of the program.

Required Related Courses

The following non-social work courses are required for all social work students and are considered to be part of the degree program. Students can complete 3 of these classes as part of their core requirements.

One 100-level Biology class

Psychology 105: General Psychology

Sociology 101: Discovering Society (Social Science Core)

Math 251: Probability and Statistics (Mathematics Core)

Required Social Work Courses

The social work courses are taught by the Department of Social Work Faculty. The required social work courses represent 54 hours of the student's total 125 credits needed for graduation. The course work begins with SW 160 Social Problems and the Response of Social Welfare Institutions and culminates with SW 498 Senior Seminar, which is designed to integrate the various courses that are taken outside of the Social Work Department with the social work courses and field experiences.

160 Social Problems and the Response of Social Welfare Institutions

4.00 credits. (Social Sciences Core Course) An orientation to the sociological and social work approaches of examining social problems and the development of social welfare policies and programs to reduce their severity and extent. An understanding of both sociological and social work theories and the way in which these theories form the foundation for research, service and advocacy is emphasized.

Fifteen (15) hours of service-learning and original social research are required.

233 Human Behavior in the Social Environment

4.00 credits. This course provides a study of the interrelationships of social systems, with particular emphasis upon the impact of the environment on human development throughout the life span. Special consideration is given to the influence of ethnicity, racism, sexism and ageism upon human behavior.

Fifteen (15) hours of service-learning is required.

**Prerequisites: PSY 105, SO 101 and BIO 101 or 102 or 103*

280 Multicultural Counseling Skills

4.00 credits. Theories explaining human behavior and social interaction, in the context of social systems and social welfare, are discussed, analyzed and critically reviewed. Students learn to appreciate their own cultural heritage and how it has shaped them; and they learn about the cultural heritage of other diverse groups, about the need for equality and social and economic justice for all oppressed people, and effective interpersonal and multicultural counseling.

Fifteen (15) hours of service-learning in a diverse setting is required.

330 Methods of Social Work Research

4.00 credits. A focus upon the basic elements of the scientific method providing an overview of research designs commonly used in social sciences, including techniques for gathering, analyzing and presenting data.

**Prerequisite or co-requisite: MA 251 and prerequisites: SW 160, 233, or permission of the instructor.*

Fall semester.

367 Generalist Social Work Practice I: Individuals

4.00 credits. A focus on problem solving in generalist practice at the micro level (i.e., individuals) with diverse populations. A variety of interventions, assessment techniques and theories are studied in preparation for a required 40-hour supervised field experience.

Fall semester

368 Generalist Social Work Practice II: Families and Small Groups

4.00 credits. A study of the knowledge, values and skills that comprise the generalist base of social work practice. It is designed to assist students in developing basic entry-level social work competencies to work with groups and families from a systems perspective. A 40-hour supervised field experience is required.

**Prerequisite: SW 367, or permission of the instructor; co-requisite: SW 369; and social work majors only.*

369 Generalist Social Work Practice III: Communities and Organizations

4.00 credits. Theory and skills development for macro generalist social work practice are presented. Promoting the social welfare of communities and organizations by enhancing social and economic justice is stressed.

**Prerequisite: SW 330, or permission of the instructor; co-requisite: SW 368; and social work majors only.*

Spring semester.

380 Social Policy

4.00 credits. Students build their knowledge of social welfare and social work's historical and philosophical foundation. They learn why and how social policy is formulated and implemented, how policy impacts direct practice, and frame works for policy analysis.

Spring semester.

470 Field Instruction I

6.00 credits. Supervised field instruction for at least 200 hours in an agency. Student begins to assume responsibility with client systems in such ways as monitoring tasks, providing support, conducting group activities, and assisting the social worker with other professional responsibilities.

Graded Pass/No Pass.

Fall semester.

471 Field Instruction II

12.00 credits. Supervised field instruction for at least 400 hours plus a weekly on-campus seminar. Students proceed from an "assistant" position to one of complete client responsibility under direct supervision. Roles students assume may include advocate, enabler, social broker and program planner.

**Prerequisites: SW 470 or permission of the instructor, and social work majors only, and co-requisite: SW 498. Graded Pass/No Pass.*

Spring semester.

498 Senior Seminar

4.00 credits. Final course integrating the theory from preceding courses with the professional experience of field instruction. A major project is required.

Spring semester.

In addition to the above courses, the Department of Social Work offers electives and special topic courses as the students are interested and as faculty time is available. Although there are no required social work electives, students are encouraged to take electives dependent on their class schedule and their career goals. The social work elective courses include:

- SW 339 Human Sexuality
- SW 344 Aging: Social Responses and Implications
- SW 346 Exploring the Culture and Services in Vietnam
- SW 347 May Term in Vietnam
- SW 355 Women in Society
- SW 357 Child Welfare
- SW 360 International Social Development
- SW 366 Addiction and Society
- SW 400 Senior Research Project

IV. FIELD INSTRUCTION

A. Role of Field Placement in Social Work Education – Core Competencies

SW 367 and SW 369 – Generalist Practice I and III

The Council of Social Work Education considers fieldwork to be the “signature” component of the curriculum in social work education. Bachelor’s level students are required by CSWE to spend a minimum of 400 hours in the field before graduation. Elizabethtown College students well exceed the CSWE requirement by completing 45 hours of service-learning hours, an 80-hour junior field placement, and a 600-hour senior field placement, for a total of 725 hours of service-learning/field placement hours.

In 2015, the Council on Social Work Education developed a performance model which describes nine competencies expected of students in the field. They include:

Competency 1–Demonstrate Ethical and Professional Behavior

Social workers understand the value base of the profession and its ethical standards, as well as relevant laws and regulations that may impact practice at the micro, mezzo, and macro levels. Social workers understand frameworks of ethical decision-making and how to apply principles of critical thinking to those frameworks in practice, research, and policy arenas. Social workers recognize personal values and the distinction between personal and professional values. They also understand how their personal experiences and affective reactions influence their professional judgment and behavior. Social workers understand the profession’s history, its mission, and the roles and responsibilities of the profession. Social Workers also understand the role of other professions when engaged in interprofessional teams. Social workers recognize the importance of life-long learning and are committed to continually updating their skills to ensure they are relevant and effective. Social workers also understand emerging forms of technology and the ethical use of technology in social work practice. Social workers:

1. make ethical decisions by applying the standards of the NASW Code of Ethics, relevant laws and regulations, models for ethical decision-making, ethical conduct of research, and additional codes of ethics as appropriate to context;
2. use reflection and self-regulation to manage personal values and maintain professionalism in practice situations;
3. demonstrate professional demeanor in behavior; appearance; and oral, written, and electronic communication;
4. use technology ethically and appropriately to facilitate practice outcomes; and
5. use supervision and consultation to guide professional judgment and behavior.

Competency 2 –Engage Diversity and Difference in Practice

Social workers understand how diversity and difference characterize and shape the human experience and are critical to the formation of identity. The dimensions of diversity are understood as the intersectionality of multiple factors including but not limited to age, class, color, culture, disability and ability, ethnicity, gender, gender identity and expression, immigration status, marital status, political ideology, race, religion/spirituality, sex, sexual orientation, and tribal sovereign status. Social workers understand that, as a consequence of difference, a person's life experiences may include oppression, poverty, marginalization, and alienation as well as privilege, power, and acclaim. Social workers also understand the forms and mechanisms of oppression and discrimination and recognize the extent to which a culture's structures and values, including social, economic, political, and cultural exclusions, may oppress, marginalize, alienate, or create privilege and power. Social workers:

1. apply and communicate understanding of the importance of diversity and difference in shaping life experiences in practice at the micro, mezzo, and macro levels;
2. present themselves as learners and engage clients and constituencies as experts of their own experiences; and
3. apply self-awareness and self-regulation to manage the influence of personal biases and values in working with diverse clients and constituencies.

Competency 3 –Advance Human Rights and Social, Economic, and Environmental Justice

Social workers understand that every person regardless of position in society has fundamental human rights such as freedom, safety, privacy, an adequate standard of living, health care, and education. Social workers understand the global interconnections of oppression and human rights violations, and are knowledgeable about theories of human need and social justice and strategies to promote social and economic justice and human rights. Social workers understand strategies designed to eliminate oppressive structural barriers to ensure that social goods, rights, and responsibilities are distributed equitably and that civil, political, environmental, economic, social, and cultural human rights are protected. Social workers:

1. apply their understanding of social, economic, and environmental justice to advocate for human rights at the individual and system levels; and
2. engage in practices that advance social, economic, and environmental justice.

Competency 4 –Engage In Practice-informed Research and Research-informed Practice

Social workers understand quantitative and qualitative research methods and their respective roles in advancing a science of social work and in evaluating their practice. Social workers know the principles of logic, scientific inquiry, and culturally informed and ethical approaches to building knowledge. Social workers understand that evidence that informs practice derives from multi-disciplinary sources and multiple ways of knowing. They also understand the processes for translating research findings into effective practice. Social workers:

1. use practice experience and theory to inform scientific inquiry and research;
2. apply critical thinking to engage in analysis of quantitative and qualitative research methods and research findings; and
3. use and translate research evidence to inform and improve practice, policy, and service delivery.

Competency 5 –Engage in Policy Practice

Social workers understand that human rights and social justice, as well as social welfare and services, are mediated by policy and its implementation at the federal, state, and local levels. Social workers understand the history and current structures of social policies and services, the role of policy in service delivery, and the role of practice in policy development. Social workers understand their role in policy development and implementation within their practice settings at the micro, mezzo, and macro levels and they actively engage in policy practice to effect change within those settings. Social workers recognize and understand the historical, social, cultural, economic, organizational, environmental, and global influences that affect social policy. They are also knowledgeable about policy formulation, analysis, implementation, and evaluation. Social workers:

1. Identify social policy at the local, state, and federal level that impacts well-being, service delivery, and access to social services;
2. assess how social welfare and economic policies impact the delivery of and access to social services;
3. apply critical thinking to analyze, formulate, and advocate for policies that advance human rights and social, economic, and environmental justice.

Competency 6 –Engage with Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities

Social workers understand that engagement is an ongoing component of the dynamic and interactive process of social work practice with, and on behalf of, diverse individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities. Social workers value the importance of human relationships. Social workers understand theories of human behavior and the social environment, and critically evaluate and apply this knowledge to facilitate engagement with clients and constituencies, including individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities. Social workers understand strategies to engage diverse clients and constituencies to advance practice effectiveness. Social workers understand how their personal experiences and affective reactions may impact their ability to effectively engage with diverse clients and constituencies. Social workers value principles of relationship-building and interprofessional collaboration to facilitate engagement with clients, constituencies, and other professionals as appropriate.

Social workers:

1. apply knowledge of human behavior and the social environment, person-in-environment, and other multidisciplinary theoretical frameworks to engage with clients and constituencies; and
2. use empathy, reflection, and interpersonal skills to effectively engage diverse clients and constituencies.

Competency 7 –Assess Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities

Social workers understand that assessment is an ongoing component of the dynamic and interactive process of social work practice with, and on behalf of, diverse individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities. Social workers understand theories of human behavior and the social environment, and critically evaluate and apply this knowledge in the assessment of diverse clients and constituencies, including individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities. Social workers understand methods of assessment with diverse clients and constituencies to advance practice effectiveness. Social workers recognize the implications of the larger practice context in the assessment process and value the importance of interprofessional collaboration in this process. Social workers understand how their personal experiences and affective reactions may affect their assessment and decision- making. Social workers:

1. collect and organize data, and apply critical thinking to interpret information from clients and constituencies;
2. apply knowledge of human behavior and the social environment, person-in-environment, and other multidisciplinary theoretical frameworks in the analysis of assessment data from clients and constituencies;
3. develop mutually agreed-on intervention goals and objectives based on the critical assessment of strengths, needs, and challenges within clients and constituencies; and
4. select appropriate intervention strategies based on the assessment, research knowledge, and values and preferences of clients and constituencies.

Competency 8 –Intervene with Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities

Social workers understand that intervention is an ongoing component of the dynamic and interactive process of social work practice with, and on behalf of, diverse individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities. Social workers are knowledgeable about evidence- informed interventions to achieve the goals of clients and constituencies, including individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities. Social workers understand theories of human behavior and the social environment, and critically evaluate and apply this knowledge to effectively intervene with clients and constituencies. Social workers understand methods of identifying, analyzing and implementing evidence-informed interventions to achieve client and constituency goals. Social workers value the importance of interprofessional teamwork and communication in interventions, recognizing that beneficial outcomes may require interdisciplinary, interprofessional, and interorganizational collaboration. Social workers:

1. critically choose and implement interventions to achieve practice goals and enhance capacities of clients and constituencies;
2. apply knowledge of human behavior and the social environment, person-in-environment, and other multidisciplinary theoretical frameworks in interventions with clients and constituencies;
3. use inter-professional collaboration as appropriate to achieve beneficial practice outcomes;
4. negotiate, mediate, and advocate with and on behalf of diverse clients and constituencies; and
5. facilitate effective transitions and endings that advance mutually agreed-on goals.

Competency 9 –Evaluate Practice with Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities

Social workers understand that evaluation is an ongoing component of the dynamic and interactive process of social work practice with, and on behalf of, diverse individuals, families, groups, organizations and communities. Social workers recognize the importance of evaluating processes and outcomes to advance practice, policy, and service delivery effectiveness. Social workers understand theories of human behavior and the social environment, and critically evaluate and apply this knowledge in evaluating outcomes. Social workers understand qualitative and quantitative methods for evaluating outcomes and practice effectiveness. Social workers:

1. select and use appropriate methods for evaluation of outcomes;
2. apply knowledge of human behavior and the social environment, person-in-environment, and other multidisciplinary theoretical frameworks in the evaluation of outcomes;
3. critically analyze, monitor, and evaluate intervention and program processes and outcomes; and
4. apply evaluation findings to improve practice effectiveness at the micro, mezzo, and macro levels.

Expectations for SW 367 and SW 369 Practicum Experience

Generalist Practice I and II are designed to present theory, examine values and develop skills for beginning level practice. You will acquire the skills you will need for direct work with your clients. This two semester-long field experience will help you to understand the connection between theory and practice. You will also learn practical, concrete skills: how to interview, how to establish rapport, how to complete a social history, how to refer, and how to terminate services. These skills will form the foundation for the rest of your social work career. You will learn to work with culturally diverse populations at different system levels.

Expectations for SW 367 and SW 369 Practicum Experience include:

1. Complete a minimum of 80 contact hours (40 hours each semester) in a social service agency coordinated by a field instructor who is employed by the agency.
2. Gain knowledge about the field site- its purpose, mission, policies and procedures for service delivery.
3. "Shadow" a social worker as they perform their duties.
4. Begin to utilize professional social work skills under close supervision.
5. Complete the required process recordings and social histories to demonstrate your ability to utilize practice skills.
6. Complete a weekly log describing most meaningful lesson learned, which core competency it relates to and any challenges or concerns that need to be addressed.
7. Participate in class discussions regarding your field experiences. Class time will be used to discuss your progress in attaining competency in the social work processes in the contact, assessment, planning, intervention, evaluation and termination phases of your experience.

Your field instructor will be responsible for your field assignment and will assist you in fulfilling the expectations for this practicum. Specific field-related concerns should be discussed with your field instructor. Your field instructor will complete an evaluation of your aptitude, skills and knowledge at the end of each semester. The Director of Field Instruction and Social Work faculty in SW 367 and SW 369 will be assessing your progress by monitoring your weekly logs.

V. POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

A. Selection of Agencies

Potential field agency sites are brought to the attention of the Director of Field Instruction through direct inquiry and application, student and faculty suggestion, alumni and other social workers' suggestions and through all means of communication. The number and type of field sites available is constantly evolving with agency changes, staff turnover and shifting community environment.

Criteria for selection include:

1. Ability to provide an experience in Social Work consistent with the definition of generalist social work practice and mission statement described by the program and suitable for baccalaureate practice
2. Commitment to Social Work values regarding human diversity and policies of nondiscrimination toward staff, clients, and students.

3. Potential opportunity for in-depth skill development, as well as exposure to a variety of Social Work experiences to promote the development of professional competence.
4. Agency ability and commitment to provide a high quality learning experience for students.
5. Potential field instructor(s) with: (a) an MSW or (b) a BSW from an CSWE-accredited degree program, (c) some Social Work education, or (d) substantial social work skills, knowledge and values and substantial experience in social work related activities. When the field instructor does not have a Social Work degree from a CSWE-accredited degree program, the Social Work faculty or Director of Field Instruction provides additional supervisory involvement to reinforce a social work perspective.
6. Agencies that provide an opportunity for the student to work with diverse ethnic and/or cultural groups are given preference.

B. Selection of Field Instructors

The agency based Field Instructor is an essential component of the field experience. The agency will provide a staff member to serve as a Field Instructor based on the following criteria:

1. Should have: (a) an MSW, or (b) a BSW from a CSWE-accredited degree program, (c) some social work education, or (d) substantial social work related experience. When the field instructor is not a social worker from a CSWE-accredited program, the Director of Field Instruction provides additional supervisory involvement and contacts to provide a consistent social work foundation that is guided by social work knowledge, professional values, and ethical standards of behavior.
2. Have the ability to assist students to integrate empirical and practice-based knowledge.
3. Be available to the Department for communication in regards to the student and for planned field instructors' workshops.
4. Have sufficient experience/time at the agency to be able to teach the student about the agency and pertinent skills.
5. Be willing to provide feedback to the Department about the field instruction process and the progress of the student by completing the Final Field Evaluation (see D next page).

C. Timing of Placement Arrangements

The process of placement of students for junior field work begins during the spring semester of their sophomore year after they have been officially accepted as a social work major.

March/ April: After the student receives their acceptance letter to the social work department the student completes a Field Interest Form (Appendix B) and sets up a meeting with the Director of Field to explore their areas of interest for a 40-hour junior placement. The Director of Field will provide guidance and make the initial contacts to the potential agencies. In most cases the agencies request a resume and interview before agreeing to accept the student for a placement. The students shall not contact any agencies without approval of the Director of Field Instruction. Failure to follow this process can result in disciplinary action including dismissal from the social work program. Students should consult with the Director of Field Instruction if they need accommodations in the field.

May/June: The Director of Field Instruction shall have final approval of all placements. The 40-hour Fall placement is finalized after the agency agrees to accept the student and the Director of Field Instruction sends out the field manual, contract letter, certificate of insurance, and letter of agreement.

August: The Fall placement usually begins the first week in September.

October/November: The student and Director of Field discuss Spring semester placements. Students may choose to stay at the same agency and complete an additional 40 hours if the agency is agreeable to allowing the student to remain at the agency for another semester. If the agency will not allow the student to remain at the agency or the student would like to switch agencies for the Spring semester they must meet with the Director of Field to explore options. After consultation with the Director of Field, students send a resume and request for an interview to potential agencies.

December: Spring semester placements are finalized.

January: Spring semester placements usually begin in the second or third week of the month.

D. Instructions for Completing the Final Field Evaluation – Student and Field Instructor

The Final Student Evaluation must be completed prior to the student's last day at the agency. It must be reviewed, signed and dated by both the student and field instructor prior to submission to the Director of Field Instruction.

E. Probation and Dismissal Policy

The Social Work Department Chair has the responsibility of placing students on probation and/or dismissing students from the Social Work program when social work faculty assess, in their best professional judgment, that probation or dismissal is the most appropriate option for the student and/or the social work program. Professional judgment is based on a number of factors including, but not limited to, student grade reports and/or direct behavioral observation of students. Probation or dismissal will be based on a student not meeting academic standards. Academic standards include course grades and observable behaviors in the classroom, campus or field education.

Generally speaking, it is the policy that students will first be placed on probation, with a development plan, when it is determined that they are not meeting academic or professional (non-academic) program standards. However, dismissal from the program may occur without a prior probationary period if, in the professional judgment of the Social Work Department Chair, in consultation with other faculty, and other parties as deemed appropriate, it is determined that immediate dismissal is the best interest of the Social Work Program, profession, student and/or clients. Judgments regarding probation or dismissal will be based on the type and/or frequency of student behaviors.

Academic Dismissal Policy

A social work major must achieve at least a C in all social work courses required within our department and maintain a 2.0 GPA within the courses required by the major. Students' academic performance is reviewed by the social work faculty at the conclusion of each semester. If the student receives a grade of a C or below in a social work course required by the major, they will be required to repeat the class and placed on probation. If a student does not have a 2.0 GPA within all courses required by the major, the student will also be placed on probation. Students will receive written notice of their probationary status from the Chair of the Social Work Department explaining the reason(s) for probation and requirements for removal from probation. Students will receive written notice of their academic standing at the end of the semester. Status possibilities include removal from probation (course has been repeated and a grade higher than a C has been obtained and/or a major 2.0 GPA is obtained), continued probation (grades and GPA do not meet standards but progress is made), or dismissal from the social work program (grades and GPA do not meet program standards and no satisfactory progress has occurred). Students will also be subject to all of the college's academic dismissal policies

Students will not be allowed to enroll in SW470 (Field Instruction I), SW471 (Field Instruction II), or SW498 (Senior Seminar) if a letter grade of a C or better in all required social work courses is not met and/or their GPA is below a 2.0.

- iv. Denial of issues that are detrimental to perform adequately in the program

Professional Performance Expectation Policy Committee Review Process

1. When a faculty member has identified that a student demonstrates at least one of the indicators of concern, he or she will meet with the student. At this meeting, the student and faculty member will develop a plan for addressing the concern. The plan will include a description of specific behaviors/concerns, goals for improvement, specific tasks for achieving goals and time limit for accomplishing the changes. The student, faculty member, and Social Work

Department Chair will receive a copy of the plan. The Social Work Department Chair will meet with the student periodically to review his or her progress.

2. If the student has not made significant progress within the time allotted or continues to demonstrate indicators of concern, the faculty member will submit a brief written statement to the Standards Committee (all full-time social work faculty members) regarding the issues, concerns, and a recommendation regarding the student. The statement should include a copy of the plan and any pertinent documentation. The faculty member should inform the student that he/she is proceeding with this step in the review process and send a copy of the letter with the guidelines for the Review Process.
3. The Social Work Department Chair will call a meeting within seven working days of receiving the statement. The student is informed, in writing, of the time and date of the meeting. In addition, the student will be given the name(s) of witnesses and faculty members who will be attending, and the specific issues that are to be addressed. This notice will also include a list of possible recommendations the committee could make. The student is asked to appear and bring documentation on his/her own behalf.
4. The committee members, faculty member, and the student will meet at the designated date and time for issues and concerns to be presented. The student is given the opportunity to present his or her own response and produce oral testimony or written statements of witnesses. The student may present any other supportive documentation.
5. The committee will then meet to decide what action should be taken. The following may be recommended:
  - a. Dismissal of the original plan
  - b. Continuation of the original plan
  - c. Revision of the original plan

If either b or c is recommended, then the committee will set up another date with the student to review the student's progress.

6. If the student again fails to complete the plan or abide by the plan or the student's academic behavior is such that she or he would be unable to satisfactorily perform as a social worker, then the committee shall have the authority to select one or more of the following options:
  - a. Recommend to the faculty member in whose course the student is enrolled that a failing grade be given to the student for the course.
  - b. Institute a probationary period for the student with specific tasks, goals, and timelines.
  - c. Suspend the student from the Social Work Program for a period of up to one year.
  - d. Terminate the student from the Social Work Program.
7. If the decision is made to suspend or terminate the student from the Social Work Program, the student has the right to appeal.

8. The student is informed of the decision in writing within three days of the meeting of the Student Standards Review Committee.
9. A copy of the decision of the Student Standards Review Committee is placed in the student's file.

Appeals Process

A student can appeal with a written statement to the Social Work Department Chair within ten days of the letter of notification from the Student Standards Review Committee. The statement must specify reasons for disagreement with the committee's decision and the rationale for considering a different decision. The committee will then convene within ten days of receipt of the statement to review the appeal. The student initiating the appeal will be invited to address the committee. The committee will render in writing a follow-up decision that may involve a revised decision or continuation of the original decision. If the student believes the committee's appeal decision was made in error, a written statement of appeal may be submitted to the Department Chair, who will confer with the Dean of Academic Affairs.

F. Assistance For Individuals With Disabilities

The social work program goals and outcomes may be met with, or without, accommodations. Elizabethtown College welcomes otherwise qualified students with disabilities to participate in all of its courses, programs, services, and activities. If you have a documented disability and would like to request accommodations in order to access course material, activities, or requirements, please contact the Director of Disability Services, Lynne Davies, by phone (361-1227) or e-mail daviesl@etown.edu. If your documentation meets the college's documentation guidelines, you will be given a letter from Disability Services for each of your professors. Students experiencing certain documented temporary conditions, such as post-concussive symptoms, may also qualify for temporary academic accommodations and adjustments.

Reasonable Accommodations

Students shall consult with the Director of Field Instruction if they have a documented disability (e.g. physical, learning, emotional, etc.). In this conversation they will explore whether they will require accommodations at their field placement in order to successfully complete the expected tasks required in field. The Director of Field Instruction and the student will work with the Director of Disability services to devise a plan to notify the fieldwork facility (preferably prior to the beginning of fieldwork) and request specific accommodations. This notification may be in the form of a letter, personal meeting and/or phone call from the student to disclose the disability and respective needs. The Director of Field Instruction and the Director of Disability Services will assist the student and the fieldwork facility to identify realistic accommodations for the student to help facilitate successful fieldwork performance.

Please know that students who do not disclose a disability or request specific accommodations are not guaranteed accommodations. In this case the supervisor is not obligated to change the evaluation of the student's performance in the event that a student is not passing or meeting expectations. Only after a disclosure is made can a supervisor and student move forward and make accommodations. It is advisable to disclose prior to the start of fieldwork. Students should discuss the advantages and disadvantages of disclosure with the Director of Field Instruction and/or the Director of Disability Services.

Confidentiality

Unless a student has expressly waived his or her privilege to confidentiality of medical records provided to substantiate either a disability or a recommendation for an accommodation, the Social Work Department personnel to whom such information has been communicated shall maintain such information in a manner that preserves its confidentiality.

In the case of student impairment that could endanger clients and impact the student's ability to meet the obligations of the field placement tasks, the Director of Field Instruction may have an ethical obligation to break confidentiality and communicate such information to the Field Supervisor.

G. NASW Code of Ethics

Social Work students are required to follow the standards of the profession advanced by the National Association of Social Workers (NASW) and the Council of Social Work Education (CSWE). Any violation of these standards may result in termination from the social work program. The major standards for practice as described in the NASW Code of Ethics are as follows:

H. Ethical Standards

The following ethical standards are relevant to the professional activities of all social workers. These standards concern (1) social workers' ethical responsibilities to clients, (2) social workers' ethical responsibilities to colleagues, (3) social workers' ethical responsibilities in practice settings, (4) social workers' ethical responsibilities as professionals, (5) social workers' ethical responsibilities to the social work profession, and (6) social workers' ethical responsibilities to the broader society.

1. Social Workers' Ethical Responsibilities to Clients

1.01 Commitment to Clients

Social Workers' primary responsibility is to promote the well-being of clients.

1.02 Self-Determination

Social Workers' respect and promote the right of clients to self-determination and assist clients in their efforts to identify and clarify their goals.

1.03 Informed Consent

Social Workers' should provide services to clients only in the context of a professional relationship based, when appropriate, on valid informed consent.

- 1.06 Conflicts of Interest
Social Workers' should be alert to and avoid conflicts of interest that interfere with the exercise of professional discretion and impartial judgment.
- 1.07 Privacy and Confidentiality
Social workers should protect the confidentiality of all information obtained in the course of professional service, except for compelling professional reasons.
- 1.09 Sexual Relationships
Social workers should under no circumstances engage in sexual activities or sexual contact with current clients, whether such contact is consensual or forced.
- 1.10 Physical Contact
Social workers should not engage in physical contact with clients when there is a possibility of psychological harm to the client as a result of the contact (such as cradling or caressing clients).
- 1.11 Sexual Harassment
Social workers should not sexually harass clients.
- 1.12 Derogatory Language
Social workers should not use derogatory language in their written or verbal communications to or about clients.

2. Social Workers Ethical Responsibilities to Colleagues

Social workers should treat colleagues with respect and should represent accurately and fairly the qualifications, views, and obligations of colleagues.

- 2.01 Respect
Social workers should treat colleagues with respect and should represent accurately and fairly the qualifications, views, and obligations of colleagues.
- 2.07 Sexual Relationships
Social workers who function as supervisors or educators should not engage in sexual activities or contact with supervisees, students, trainees, or other colleagues over whom they exercise professional authority.

3. Social Workers' Ethical Responsibilities in Practice Settings

- 3.04 Client Records
Social workers should take reasonable steps to ensure that documentation in records is accurate and reflects the services provided.

4. Social Worker's Ethical Responsibilities in Practice Settings

4.03 Private Conduct

Social workers should not permit their private conduct to interfere with their ability to fulfill their professional responsibilities.

4.04 Dishonesty, Fraud, and Deception

Social workers should not participate in, condone, or be associated with dishonesty, fraud, or deception.

4.05 Impairment

Social workers should not allow their own personal problems, psychosocial distress, legal problems, substance abuse, or mental health difficulties to interfere with their professional judgment and performance or to jeopardize the best interests of people for whom they have a professional responsibility.

Discussion, Grievance, and Appeal Process for Non-Academic Infraction

The procedure for dealing with a student who has allegedly committed a non-academic infraction involves an initial consultation by the concerned faculty member with the student to discuss the professional standard issue. If the problem is one of misperception of inadequate information, the discussion ends. If the faculty member is still concerned, a second meeting is scheduled for the purpose of developing a written plan to improve the specific behavior or areas of concern, specific tasks and goals, and time limit. This plan will be signed by the faculty member and student and forwarded to the Social Work Department Chair.

If the student has not made significant progress on the plan within the specified time limit, a meeting with a social work faculty committee and the student will be held. The student and the Office of the Provost are informed in writing of the time and date for the meeting. At the meeting, the student will have an opportunity to express their concerns with written documentation regarding the issue or problem.

After the meeting with the student, the faculty committee will convene to take action. The committee has the right to dismiss the concern, revise the action plan, or terminate the student from the program. The student will be informed in writing of the faculty committee's decision within seven days. A copy of the letter is placed in the permanent student file.

The student has a right to appeal the decision to the Office of the Provost.

I. Changing Field Placements

Careful attention is given to the process of matching students and agencies. Occasionally a change of field placement is necessary for one of the following reasons:

1. Change in Department policy.
2. Internal matters of the agency.
3. Irreconcilable differences between the student and Field Instructor.

4. Changes in the student overall educational or person situation.

The student must discuss the desire for change of field placement with the field instructor. If the issues are not resolved, the student must discuss the problem with the Director of Field Instruction. If the Field Instructor initiates the request for a change, the problem must be discussed with the student first. A conference with the student, Field Instructor and Director of Field Instruction will then take place and a decision will be made regarding the desired change.

J. Student Stipends/Reimbursement

Student stipends are not required, but are not prohibited. With the ever rising cost of education, many students are pressed financially. Agencies are asked to at least reimburse the student for expenses incurred in the performance of agency tasks, such as mileage reimbursement for home visits.

K. Insurance

Elizabethtown College maintains a professional liability policy that covers the social work faculty and the students in placement. A copy of the policy number will be provided to the field agencies if required. Agencies may provide additional coverage by including students in their own volunteer or staff coverage policies.

L. Criminal Clearances

All students, regardless of placement, will complete a Child Abuse Clearance and a State Police Criminal Background Check prior to the beginning of their placement at the start of the academic year. The cost of these clearances is the responsibility of each student.

M. Employment by Field Placement Agency

It is the policy of the BSW program that when students complete field requirements in agencies where they are formerly or currently employed that they engage in new learning activities distinct from their employment.

The Director of Field Education may allow a work study field placement if the following conditions are met:

- a. The agency must be diverse enough to offer educational experiences that broaden the student's knowledge base and degree of expertise beyond traditional job tasks and assignments.
- b. The agency must be formally affiliated with the Elizabethtown College Bachelor of Social Work Program.
- c. The student must be under the supervision of a Field Education Instructor, who is not their ongoing supervisor, who is qualified under the Social Work program policies.

- d. Field assignments in the agency must have an educational focus, must differ significantly from the student's current or past job assignments, and must be in a different (i.e., separate) program area.
- e. The agency must submit written documentation that explicitly addresses points a. through d. above, and that clearly delineates release time provided that student for completion of field course requirements.

Due to the difficulty of establishing clear learning expectations in a work study environment, these placements will be approved at the discretion of the Director of Field Instruction. Additionally, the burden for demonstrating that all conditions for the placement have been met are upon the student applying for such an internship.
