THE CENTER FOR EXCELLENCE IN TEACHING AND LEARNING
ELIZABETHTOWN COLLEGE

Signature Teaching & Advising Series

Modeled on our students' Signature Learning Experiences program, this program guarantees 6 professional development opportunities at a time when you can take advantage of them. Upon conclusion of the program, faculty members will receive a letter documenting their participation, thus providing an artifact suitable for inclusion in a professional portfolio to highlight efforts to improve teaching and advising effectiveness. The remaining events in the series are indicated here so that you can mark your calendar.

All sessions: Wed. 11 AM-12:15 PM in Gible Auditorium (Ebensshade)

February 7: Get some IDEAs! Using Student Evaluation Results and Related Resources to Improve Teaching Effectiveness

Facilitated by: Chase Cookson, IDEA Campus and Faculty Development Specialist

March 21: Increased Cultural Competency for Increased Teaching Effectiveness

Facilitated by: Monica Smith and Faculty Colleagues

April 11: Teaching with Technology EXPO

Facilitated by: Linda Macaulay and Faculty Colleagues

Reading Group

Join PDC facilitators and New Faculty members to discuss James Lang's Small Teaching: Everyday Lessons from the Science of Learning.

February 21 and April 4 from 11:00 AM -12:00 PM - CETL Lounge. To participate, contact moorejill@etown.edu to request a copy of the book.
