Career Opportunity

Full-time Instructor of Applied Piano

The Department of Music at Elizabethtown College is accepting applications for a full-time one-semester, sabbatical replacement in Applied and Collaborative piano beginning August 19, 2019. The Music Department has nine full-time faculty and offers majors in Music, Music Education, and Music Therapy.

Teaching responsibilities for this position include functional keyboard classes, applied piano, and either a music theory or a music history survey course. The position also includes serving as a collaborative pianist for student juries and performance classes, approximately 100 hours of rehearsal and performance for the semester.

Qualifications and requirements:

Master's degree in piano (performance or collaborative), college-level teaching experience and collaborative piano experience. We are especially interested in applicants with diverse backgrounds and experiences and in applicants with a commitment to creating inclusive learning environments. Qualified applicants will be committed to dynamic and innovative teaching. Candidates with doctoral degrees are preferred.

Interested candidates should apply to: <http://etown.peopleadmin.com/postings/1711>

Please upload cover letter, CV, a recording of one collaborative performance and email addresses for three references. References will be contacted by Elizabethtown College to submit letters of recommendation electronically.
