To receive a bachelor’s degree from Elizabethtown College, the student must earn a minimum of 125 credits. Some programs may require more than this minimum to complete all program requirements. (See the program requirements for specific information.) No more than one bachelor’s degree is ever awarded to an individual by Elizabethtown College; however, students may complete a second major, a minor, or teacher certification subsequent to graduation. Some major courses may also fulfill Core requirements.

Notes:
- 2 courses in pre-1800 British literature are needed: EN 220, and EN 420 or an appropriate 300-level literature course.
- A 4-credit Independent Study (EN 480-489) may be substituted for one of the 300- or 400-level literature courses.
- English majors need to complete the 2nd course at the introductory level in a modern language (112), or 1 course if the modern-language placement is 200 level or higher. For ancient languages, the 2nd course in a 2-semester introductory sequence must be completed.
