

Textbook Return Policy

New and used textbooks purchased or rented in-store for the current semester are returnable for the first three days from the start of each semester with receipt. New books must be in perfect condition - no highlighting, bent corners, etc. Shrink-wrapped packs must be unopened in original packaging or 25% will be deducted from the original price. Defective texts will be replaced at no charge. If you drop a course or have a schedule change you may return a book for up to two weeks from the start of class - proof of this change is required. Refunds are subject to the discretion of the textbook manager.
